Superintendent's Highlights

The Fruitland School District received an additional $40,000 to continue its Learning for the 21st Century Project. The money will be used to assist the district in aligning its curriculum and develop an assessment instrument.

The district added several personnel to meet the student growth demands of our community. Finally, twenty-one additional acres have been purchased for a future school building and additional playground/athletic fields. An athletic concession/restroom facility was built along with two additional high school classrooms utilizing school plant facility levy money.
